The farewell of a retiring long-term colleagues is a nice but also melancholic event for a company. Anton Milly was engaged at Infastaub for 45 years. For his colleagues he was always „Toni“. Now he retired. During a small ceremony, his long-term and new companions said goodbye.

Extensive knowledge and many years of experience in his area as well as a very enjoyable cooperation are characteristics of Anton Milly. He didn't only manage a job. He filled his tasks with his entire strength and energy. Anton Milly felt called to what he did and moreover not only used his brain, but also weighed in his heart and sense.

Many colleagues felt wistfully when saying goodbye to one of the old manufacturing warhorse. „It will be different without Toni“, was the joint comment of all Infastaub employees. Nevertheless all are happy for Anton Milly, that now a new stage of life begins for him which offers more time for his family and his passions.

When Anton Milly will sit on his retiree bench in future, his will think about Infastaub from time to time. We are sure about that.
